5-20 Deputation - Gravel and Tar Cycling Event

Mr Steve Stannard (Race Director) made a deputation on the success of the last Gravel and Tar Cycling event held in January 2020. He highlighted the following points:

- The event was well attended by international cyclists, but not many national cyclists took part.
- Cyclist stayed in the Manawatū for a week.
- The event struggled to attract many women riders as there was no follow up event(s) for them to participate in.
- The event has a huge following by international audience and tv coverage generated a lot of exposure for the region.
- Struggled to get local buy in for the event.
- It is a massive effort for volunteers to organise and run.
- The event has huge potential to expand, however a proper governance arrangement needs to be put in place to co-ordinate the management of the event.

Moved Leonie Hapeta, seconded Tangi Utikere.

Progress report: Sport Manawatū - Six month report (1 July to 30 December 2019) to Palmerston North City Council

Memorandum, presented by Julie Macdonald, Strategy & Policy Manager.

Brad Cassidy and Tania Garrett from Sport Manawatū made a presentation. They made the following comments:

- Instead of an all-city approach, Sports Manawatū have conducted an in-depth analysis of the physical activity levels and needs of the residents living in Roslyn. To assess where the physical activity gaps are, and what the community values in terms of physical activity.
- The Women and Girls festival was held in October 2019 to encourage women and girls to get involved in sports and active recreation. It was based on the national Women and Girls strategy. As part of this festival, Sport Manawatū ran 20 “Have a go” activities across the city. More resources are to be allocated to make the festival an annual event.
- Co-ordinated the NZTA Bike Ready programme in schools which encourages children to cycle, and to change behaviours and attitudes towards cycling.
- Co-ordinated the Council funded Bikes in Schools programme in 6 schools in the city. The programme aims to encourage children to cycle by teaching them the necessary skills and by providing sufficient bike and helmets so that everyone can participate.

For the next progress report Councillors asked Sports Manawatu to:

- Emphasis how and where the Council’s money is spent.
- Show the number of people participating in events for the kiwi sports fund and the active community fund.
