Parish Vision

- Part of Wider Parish Vision
- Historic Significance
- Civic Church – ‘Cathedral in the North’
- Resource Church
- Community Resource
- Centre of Learning

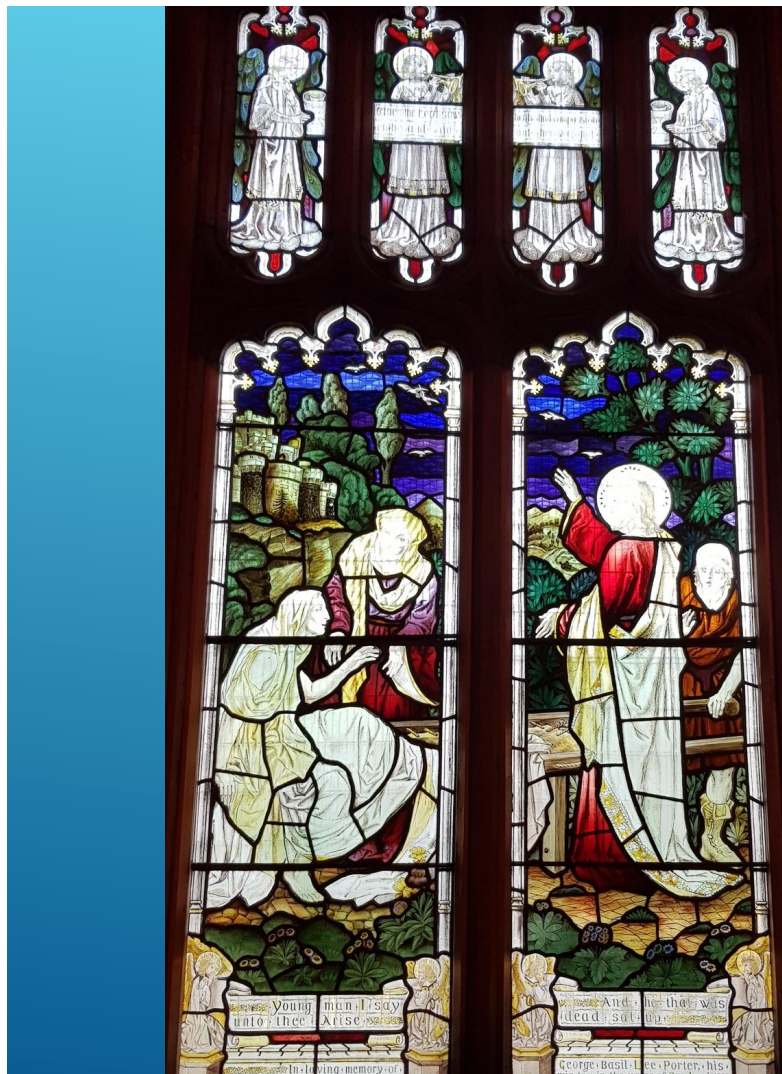

The great eastern window which was installed in 1923 as a memorial to those who died in World War I and as a thanksgiving to peace.

One of the prized architectural features of the interior is the hammerbeam roof framing

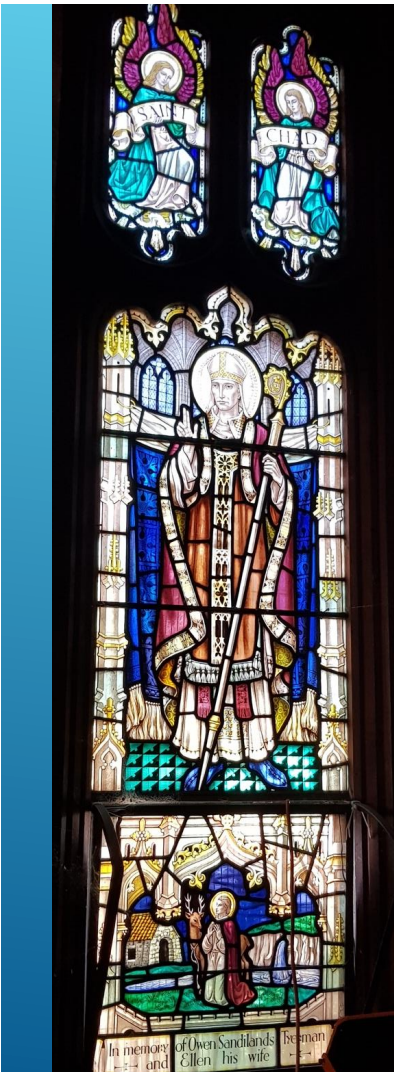

In proud and ever loving memory of Arthur Anderson Martin M.D., F.R.C.S.E., who died at Amiens of wounds received at Flers on the Somme front while helping the wounded under heavy shell fire on September 17th 1916. Aged 38.

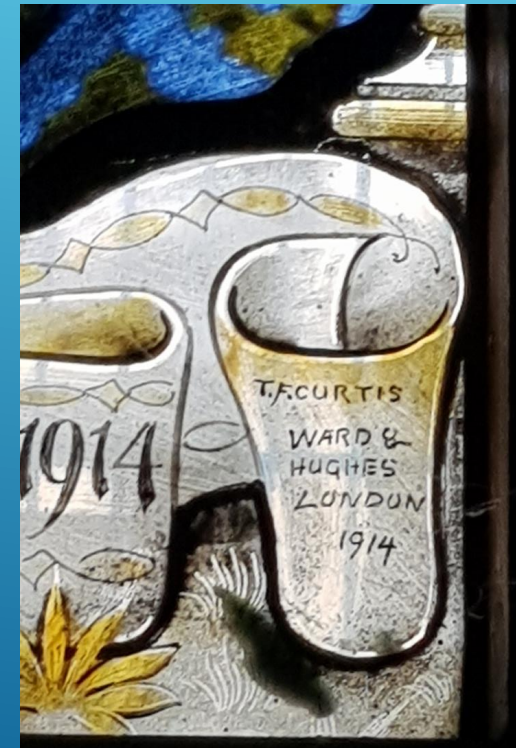

St. Chad window in Lady Chapel made by James Powell & Sons, Whitefriars Stained Glass Studios in Middlesex, England.

East window of Lady Chapel made by T.R. Curtis, Ward & Hughes, London, 1914.

St. Aidan window made by T.F. Curtis, Ward & Hughes, London

The organ was built in 1929.

It is one of only two remaining organs built by George Croft of this size and is the largest parish church organ in New Zealand.
